

ENGLISH:

- Biographies & autobiographies.
- A variety of different types of writing linked to the themes of water, rivers, deserts, and Ancient Egypt.
- Aspects of grammar, punctuation and spelling are taught weekly.

COMPUTING:

- Internet research (biographies, rivers, Ancient Egypt).
- Presenting research as Word document, Powerpoint and/or moving pictures.
- Using simple programming.

SCIENCE:

- Classifying living things.
- The human body.

HISTORY: Life in Ancient Egypt.

YEAR 6 AUTUMN TERM.

DESIGN & TECHNOLOGY:

- Design & make a water-lifting machine.
- Make a square-based pyramid

ART:

- Drawing from reality and from imagination.
- Ancient Egyptian tomb paintings.

R.E:

- Christianity and Islam: architecture versus charity.

MUSIC:

- Listening to a variety of musical genres.
- Singing in small and larger groups.

MATHEMATICS:

- Understanding place value
- Revision of four rules & standard methods of calculation.
- Working with decimals, common fractions and percentages.
- Learning about and working with shape & space.
- Working with data & measures.

GEOGRAPHY:

- Continents, capitals, rivers & oceans, lines of latitude and longitude.
- Rivers, their importance & their effects upon the landscape.
- Desert landscapes.
- Water conservation, water safety.

P.E.

- Football, hockey, netball, tag rugby & small ball skills.
- Creative and traditional dance.